New Claim 1:

1. A "frigate" vessel-type equipment system having standard equipment segments, for power generation, 5 power distribution, propulsion and automation, and having a vessel hull (1), which is matched to the "frigate" vessel-type equipment system on a size and requirement-specific basis, wherein the standard equipment segments are formed 10 from standard units and components which are arranged in accordance with the requirements in the vessel hull (1) of the "frigate" vessel-type equipment system, and which can be installed in vessel holes of different vessel-type equipment 15 systems.
